

best practice caregiving

*Guiding organizations to dementia programs
for family caregivers*

A partnership between Benjamin Rose Institute on Aging and Family Caregiver Alliance

Best Practice Caregiving is a free, easy-to-use resource that offers healthcare and community service organizations, providers and funders detailed information on more than 40 proven, carefully vetted dementia caregiving programs located across the U.S.

Three years in the making, this project is a product of the collaboration among three leading organizations in the field of aging and caregiving: Benjamin Rose Institute on Aging, Center for Research and Education; Family Caregiver Alliance: National Center on Caregiving; and The Gerontological Society of America.

DEMENTIA CARE PROGRAMS

- More than 40 programs ready for implementation
- Compare programs by feature
- Select programs that best match population needs

A DATA-RICH RESOURCE

- Explore key research studies
- Review real-world experiences of those who have implemented each program
- Contact and usage/license fee (if any) information included for each program

To learn more, visit bpc.caregiver.org.

This project was made possible through the generous funding support of The John A. Hartford Foundation, Archstone Foundation and RRF Foundation for Aging.